ABOUT OUR LIST

PRINT LISTS ARE DATED!

Unlike our website we cannot update a print list, so be aware that items you see here may be sold out on our site. This list was compiled on August 27th, 2010. Always check our site for current availability.

BANDS ONLY

Our offerings currently are for band pots only. From time to time we may release some varieties which we have grown on in gallons. To see a list of these please turn to our Roses search page at vintagegardens.com, check the available gallons box and hit search. The current offerings in gallons will appear on the list.

SPRING SHIP 2011

Varieties here marked Sp2010, and 'Spring Ship 2011', may be ordered now for shipping next spring.

SPLIT SHIPMENTS

Your order may contain items that are held for shipping as well as items that are now ready to ship. You may combine these; if you do we will automatically assign a date in Spring 2010 to ship your entire order, unless you tell us to 'split the shipment and send any that are ready now'. This will comprise two orders for the purposes of shipping costs and any agricultural inspection fees.

BUILD YOUR ORDERS OVER TIME

We welcome you to add to your orders any time you like. Please remember that if you are taking advantage of our online specials, items added may not qualify for those discounts. Orders cancelled, after we have pulled plants and confirmed, may be charged a restocking fee.

The List

We know how useful paper lists can be when perusing a large number of choices, so we've made this one up for you to launch our new season.

Surfing the website and seeing images of flowers is even greater fun, but sometimes you just need to curl up with pencil and paper and ponder the possibilities. And, we think it's a pretty impressive list full of opportunities!

THE VINTAGE COLLECTION OF RUGOSAS

We have worked hard this year to try to propagate as many of our Rugosa rose varieties as possible. Though we've fallen short of the full compliment, we think you'll be delighted to find so many superb varieties to choose from. This may not be repeated in our offerings next fall, so do order any Rugosas that you think you'd like to add to your own collection. A few more Rugosas will appear in our Spring 2011 list.

RARE OLD MINIATURE ROSES

Included in this list is a selection of rare old Miniature roses that we would draw to your attention. Thanks to the generosity of the volunteers at the San Jose Heritage Rose Garden, we have been able to offer these briefly for lovers of these dainty old treasures. Our Minis this year are grown in a slightly smaller band pot than our other roses. Carmencita, Coraline, Little Juan and "Ruth Gray's Mini" are just a few that we think are exceptional.

HOW TO READ OUR LIST!

This listing includes band pots only. We include the name, date of introduction, color code, and F10/Sp11 to indicate items that can be shipped fall 2010, or must be held till Spring 2011. * (asterisk) = available to order now, August 27th, 2010.

CAN'T FIND A ROSE YOU ARE HOPING TO ORDER?

In October 2011 we will update this list with the remaining varieties that we have propagated and can accept orders on for shipping in the spring of 2011. Many hundreds more varieties will be released for shipping between March and June of 2011. Upcoming in that list you will find Hybrid Teas and Floribundas, Old European Roses like Gallicas, Albas, and Damasks.

We have propagated more than 1600 varieties in the summer of 2010; it simply takes time for Nature to bring them to readiness for us to ship them to you!

Thank you for your support of Vintage Gardens, and our efforts to preserve these remarkable old roses through propagation!

-Gregg Lowery & Gita Phy
